DECREES

ART. 1 – SELECTION FOR AWARDING 1 (ONE) POSTDOCTORAL POSITION CONTRACT

This document announces the selection process IpD35/2026 for the formulation of a ranking for the awarding of n. 1 postdoctoral position contract in the scientific-disciplinary group GSD 10-STAA/01 ANCIENT AND MODERN CULTURES AND LANGUAGES OF AFRICA AND WESTERN AND CENTRAL ASIA in the scientific-disciplinary sector SSD STAA-01/A History of Ancient Western Asia and the Ancient Eastern Mediterranean, to perform the research on the topic "Herodotus and the Ancient Near East: worlds in contact at the "origins" of history", financed under the project ERC PALaC (GA 757299) of the Horizon 2020 program, CUP code B35D17000650006.

The research program concerns (description of the research program within which the postdoctoral position contract holder will work): the presence of connections with and references to the East in Herodotus's work is well known: Egypt, Anatolia and Mesopotamia play a clear and explicit role in the narrative of the first books of the Histories. However, the difficulty in identifying the sources on which the historian drew makes it very hard to understand how this narrative was constructed. Rather than tackling the problem with the traditional tools of classical philology, the project aims to search Herodotus' text for traces of narrative elements, linguistic formulas and literary traditions of Ancient Near Eastern origin, by comparing it with the essentially historical-political sources of the pre-classical Near East, such as the Assyrian annals and Syro-Mesopotamian inscriptions. The aim of the programme will be the publication of at least two academic articles dedicated to the discussion of this complex issue.

The purpose of the assignment that will be entrusted to the postdoctoral position contract holder will be (description of the activities that the postdoctoral position contract will have to carry out during the duration of the contract): research of references to the ancient Near East and to cultural, religious, scribal, or linguistic practices in the first books of Herodotus' Histories, with the aim of improving our understanding of the role of Eastern historical traditions in the development of historical and historiographical thought and in the genesis of the cultural constructs of "East" and "West."

The postdoctoral position contract will have a duration of twelve months, with the possibility of extension in accordance with the law.

Admission to the selection process, and the selection procedure itself, are governed by the following Articles.
