

Tutoring for International Students at the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures

A peer tutoring service is available for international students at the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures from September to December 2026.

The service is provided by Ilaria Bottaro, a Student Ambassador from the Department. Students can receive assistance with:

- completing their Learning Agreement;
- finding classrooms and checking class timetables;
- finding course syllabi and other course information;
- registering for examinations;
- understanding examination formats and procedures;
- obtaining other useful information about studying at the Department.

Students can meet with the tutor either in person or online via Zoom during the hours listed below. In-person meetings take place in the Digital Lab, on the third floor of the Department. Individual appointments are also available upon request.
