WORK EXPERIENCE

University of Verona

2023 - PRESENT

PhD Candidate

- Develop a research project in Developmental Psychology with a focus on the impact of music training in the development of competencies in 0-6-year-olds.

Primary School Calasanzio

10/2022-11/2022

Primary School Teacher

- Teach music to first and second-grade student.
- Support teaching for children with learning difficulties.

Through it, I understand how difficult is it teaching to young children and that I needed to be more prepared and focused on early childhood education.

Secondary School Mantova 3

01/2022-03/2022

Teacher of Italian, History, and Geography in Middle school

- Teach italian, history and Geography in Middle School.

Through it, I was able to get closer to the world of education, particularly the world of secondary education. In this context, I was able to put my course of study, being able to teach first, second, and third graders Italian, history, and geography. It was a really good experience.

VOLUNTEERING

Red Cross Volunteer

2022-PRESENT

I am a volunteer at the Italian Red Cross headquarters in Desenzano (BS). I joined the association in March 2022, and since then, I have taken several steps forward: I am qualified for simple medical transport with double-deckers, van vehicles, and non-emergency ambulances and medical transport with non-emergency ambulances. I have also completed a course to become operational in the 118 sector. I have a license to drive all CRI non-emergency license plate vehicles, and a specific license to drive emergency ambulances. But, most of all, I love doing activities with youth.

CREATIVE WORKS

A personal blog on Wordpress

2018-PRESENT

Since 2018, I have been running a personal blog on the WordPress platform, where I record philosophical reflections and reviews of books I read.
