A REGION WORTH EXPLORING

At the heart of Europe,
the Bourgogne-Franche-Comté region is one of the greenest ones.

Explore the Jura mountains, spend some time in beautiful outdoors and take quick trips to Switzerland, Germany or Italy.

There are many places to discover and great people to meet out on the trails.

LIVING IN FRANCHE-COMTÉ

Franche-Comté is a great place to live, close to nature, a territory of cultural heritage. With 120,000 inhabitants, Besançon has been awarded the Biodiversity City label in 2018 recognizing its quality of life and its closeness to nature.

Closer to Switzerland, the city of Belfort is world renowned with its Lion built by Bartholdi who offered the Statue of Liberty to the USA.

APPLICATIONS

Nomination deadlines:

First term: May 15th

Second term: October 15th

Application deadlines (university enrollment and housing):

First term: June 1st
